foreword

The KALEIDOSCOPE of 1962 is intended to be a summary in pictures of life at Hampden-Sydney College. Our limitations have been the many aspects of campus life that cannot be preserved by such means. We have tried, therefore, to present the more permanent aspects, and we hope that this Yearbook will be accepted and enjoyed by both the students and administration, who share a common life on the Hill. If, many years from now, in looking through this Yearbook, you can recall old friends and pleasant memories of your college years, then we can consider this publication a success.

Returning upperclassmen and incoming freshmen in September, 1961, found the new $400,000.00 Joseph D. Eggleston Library open and ready for use. It was formally dedicated at Homecoming exercises on October 28 with the Honorable Colgate W. Darden, Jr. delivering the address. Since that time, in increasing numbers, students have found the new building to be a convenient and comfortable place to study. Seating space is available for 232 readers, and the book stacks will accommodate 100,000 volumes.

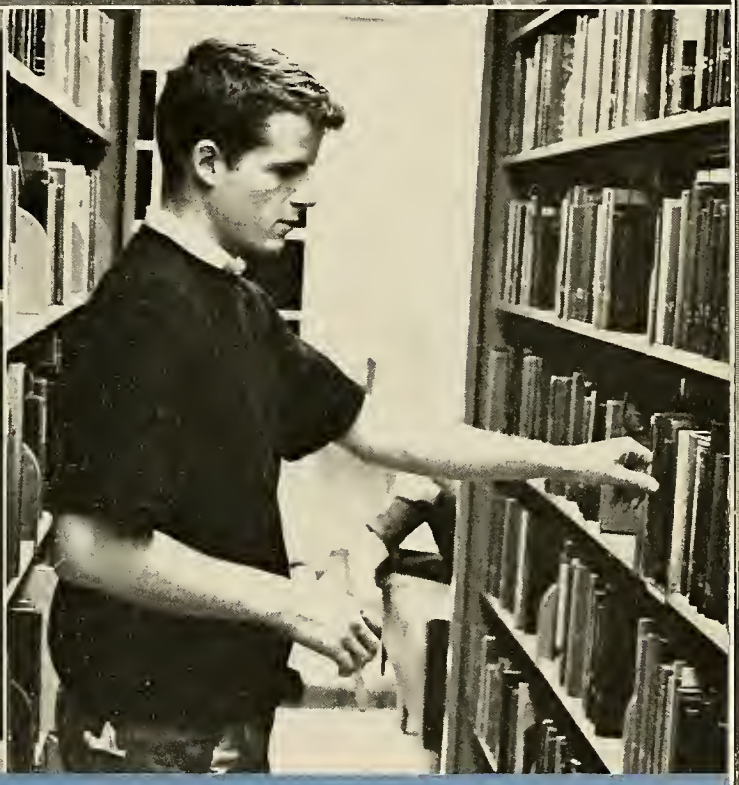

The traditional exterior, in harmony with the other buildings on the campus, conceals an interior which is completely modern and functional in every respect. Approval of the contemporary interior with its bright color scheme, excellent lighting and comfortable furniture is evidenced by the ever increasing use of the library. Features include attractive smoking rooms on each floor, an outdoor reading terrace off the main floor, a listening room equipped with a stereophonic phonograph, and eleven individual typing rooms located at various places throughout the building.

HAMPDEN-SYDNEY COLLEGE
OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
HAMPDEN-SYDNEY, VIRGINIA

May 1962

To the Members of the Graduating Class:

When you are thumbing through the pages of the 1962 Kaleidoscope, you will be looking back over four years spent here on the "Hill" and reviewing in your own mind, if not with one or more of your classmates, the meaning of college training. The essential purpose is training for intelligent behavior. This, of course, includes the acquisition of knowledge, the learning of facts as you studied particular courses, but it should include much more; it should include the ability to make wise choices, sound appraisal of problems, guided by the well disciplined mind.

Your training should have encouraged honesty, loyalty, courage, clean living, and many other qualities upon which our Christian heritage places such emphasis. Your student government should have played an important role in this area. In the four years of your stay on this campus every course, every campus activity should have made its contribution in its own way towards the life which is worth living.

As you leave, a graduate of the old college, it is my prayer that you should emerge with a sense of what it really means to be a Hampden-Sydney man.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas E. Gilmer

Founded in 1800, the literary magazine was established to offer to students of literary ability an opportunity to express themselves through poetry, essays, and short stories. The magazine affords the only medium on the campus for such creative writing.

In conjunction with Sigma Upsilon Literary Fraternity, the magazine staff this year sponsored a literary contest for the May issue of the magazine. Entries were broken down into three categories: Fiction, non-Fiction, and Poetry. Three cash prizes were awarded in each category. The poem on the opposite page was one of the entries which we consider appropriate for publication in this yearbook.

TO TREAT THE POOR THINGS SO

Why is it that with ev'ry class the student's mood must change?
How just is it that he endure professors odd and strange?

Impersonal precision and machine-like quality—
Prerequisites for doing well in freshman chemistry.
Labs and lectures hurry on with unimpeded haste,
The student finds that all his work is nothing but a waste.
On halogens, electrolytes, convertability,
He studies long without repose or sweet tranquility.
The bustling little teacher—calm, aloof, serene—
Can almost hold communion with the salts of iodine.

In English he must always be alert and open-minded.
It's imperative that he not be by faulty logic blinded.
The professor stresses constantly the many rules of writing;
Slanting is a cardinal sin for one should not be slighting.
Forceful sentences, he says, are builders of success;
And he should know, just look at his own calm contentedness.
He sternly warns the cringing class that it will cost them dear
To dare ignore the clever rules to which one should adhere.
But even if your speech is crude and filled with harsh invective,
He'll gladly sanction anything as long as it's effective.

As if he had not suffered much, or had much to endure,
He then must go to calculus, quite useless and obscure.
The confuséd class alas does sit an unenlightened throng;
The enthralléd teacher integrates so merrily along.
With mid-point rules, half-angle forms, and other sleights-of-hand;
He still can't seem to show it so the class will understand.
Differentials, integrals, come flying wave on wave;
And senseless to his class's mood, the student on and on does rave.

To ancients next the student flies to read "Lingua Latina,"
With Ovid weaving pretty tales of Cupid and Corinna.
The world of old throws wide its arms with men and deeds quite notable,
And the restless moderns fret and thirst for something a bit more potable.
The instructor mildly notes and marks the gerunds, verbs, and datives;
While harassed students frown and try to read the tongue like natives.
The class, bewildered, struggles on with languid lethargy,
Begrudging the professor that which he alone can see.

With Bible last the mood must change, and all should be quite sober.
Creation and original sin must be finished by October.
The professor, god-like, condescends to show to one and all
The futile frailty of life on this terrestr'al ball.
How disillusioning it seems when, day on dreary day,
Miracles—the hope of youth—are all explained away.
There are many likely answers to a question on a quiz,
But of all interpretations, you had better put down his.
But one must thank him also for a favor quite prodigious,
Because he could decide to make the atmosphere religious.

I have described the many moods which students then must know.
Does it seem fair, truthfully, to treat the poor things so?

DR. BENJAMIN RICE LACY, JR.

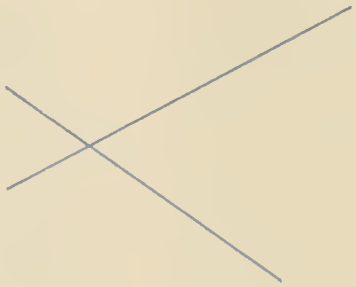

At the closing of the academic year in 1961, Hampden-Sydney lost one of the most capable men ever to serve the College—Dr. Ben Lacy.

In 1926, Dr. Lacy received the summons to serve God and his fellow man as the President of the Union Theological Seminary, from which he had graduated twelve years earlier. From 1926 to 1956 he devotedly held this post. When the mandatory retirement age arrived, Dr. Lacy was still active and was not ready to give up full-time Christian service. At this time he entered into his service at Hampden-Sydney.

Dr. Lacy arrived on the Hill on February 1, 1956, and served five memorable years as Chaplain for Hampden-Sydney College as well as Pastor for College Church. During this time many men of the Hill had the privilege of knowing and working with him.

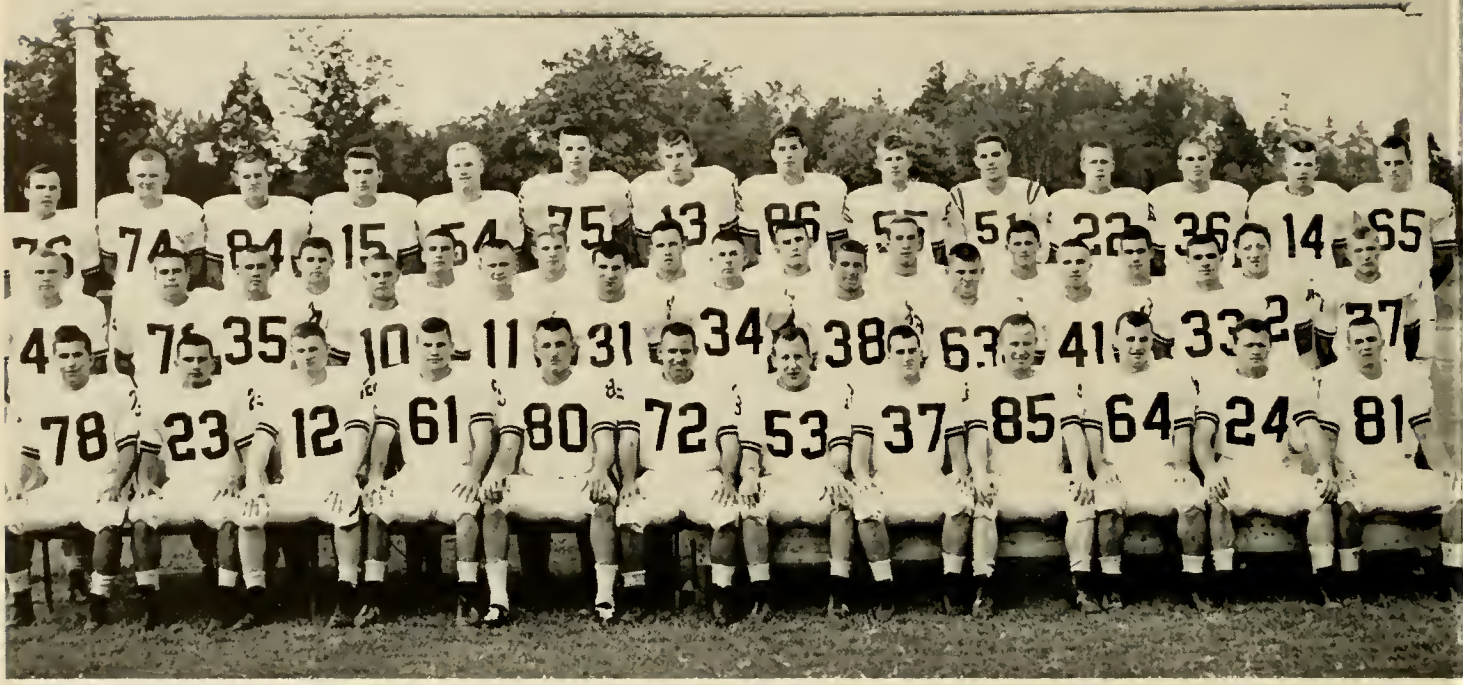

The students who worked with Dr. Lacy knew him as a spry individual with a quick and cheery greeting and a phenomenal memory for names. He was always ready to discuss problems, as well as other matters, with the students.

On behalf of the Student Body, the Student Christian Association would like to dedicate this page to Dr. Benjamin Rice Lacy, Jr., with sincere appreciation for his generous and devoted service to Hampden-Sydney College.

Generals Edge Tigers in Opener

SEPTEMBER 23—The Tigers opened their 1961 season by coming up with the short end of a 7-6 decision on the home field of the Washington and Lee Generals.

The Tiger eleven took the lead midway in the first period by climaxing a 66-yard march that featured a 34-yard jaunt by halfback Lewis Everette, with a 7 yard pass play from quarterback Stuart Shelton to end Bobby Saylor, who was all alone in the end zone. The following play turned out to be the difference between a stand-off and a defeat. A W. & L. tackle slipped through the Tiger defense and blocked Fred Mitchell's extra point try.

The Generals failed to score until late in the third period, when they ended a 64 yard push with a 2-yard plunge off-tackle for the score. This was followed by the successful try for the extra point, which turned out to be the deciding factor of the game.

Three plays later, the Generals recovered a Tiger fumble on the H.-S.C. 13 yard line. However, the Generals' efforts to score were thwarted by the Hampden-Sydney recovery of a W. & L. bobble on the 2-yard line.

Unfortunately for the Tigers, the W. & L. abundance of manpower began to take its toll on the Tiger team during the second half. The Tigers, lacking in depth, could not cope with the defensive units of Washington and Lee and only once did the Tigers penetrate the enemy territory during the second half.

Hampden-Sydney standouts in the game were Bobby Saylor, Ken Pritchett, and George Perkins, who were all especially effective on defense.

Tigers Even Record at 1-1 By Crushing Bridgewater 51-7

SEPTEMBER 30 — Hampden-Sydney's Bengals scored almost at will in overpowering an unfortunate Bridgewater eleven in the first home encounter of the season. The win gave the Tigers their 17th straight decision over the Eagles.

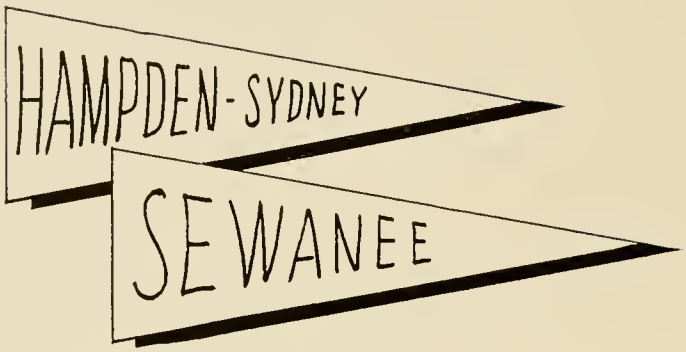

The Tigers scored on drives of 30, 67, 57, 81, 78, 51, 56, and 31 yards. All but one of the drives were completed on the ground. The only Bridgewater score came during the fourth period.

Hampden-Sydney's first score came three plays after end Joey Viar had recovered an Eagle fumble on the opening kickoff. Lewis Everette galloped into the end zone with only one minute, ten seconds of the game gone. Two minutes later Fred Mitchell romped 50 yards for the second touchdown. The first half ended with the scoreboard reading 32-0, after Stewart Shelton, Tris Hyde, and Archie Soucek had each hit pay dirt. Of the five touchdowns of the first half, only two extra points were garnered.

The Tigers roared back in the second half by posting their sixth, seventh, and eighth tallies of the game.

Tom Tredway took the ball and sprinted 67 yards to make the score 38-0. The next score was posted by Lewis Everette, who slipped over the goal from the two yard line. The final tally came on a 19-yard pass from freshman quarterback George Reynolds to freshman back George Heilig. The conversion was successful and the game came to an end only after the Eagles completed a 67-yard drive with their only score of the game. The extrapoint was good and the score remained 51-7.

The entire team did an excellent job and honors go to each member.

Tigers Fall to Sewanee 21-9

OCTOBER 7—The Tigers of Hampden-Sydney traveled for the second time by air to meet the Purple Tigers of Sewanee. Unfortunately for the Hampden-Sydney squad, the powerful single-wing of the Purple Tigers scored 21 points to only 9 for the Death Valley team.

During the early part of the game, neither team could make any headway. Then, near the end of the first period, the Bengals drove to the Sewanee 15, where the offense faltered and Fred Mitchell put the Tigers ahead with a field goal.

The Bengals began to dominate the game by the second quarter and drove to the Sewanee 19 where they lost the ball on downs. Sewanee took over and on a quick opener the Purple Tigers scored with an 81-yard run. The second half proved to be the Bengals' downfall. The two remaining Sewanee scores came on passes, one in the third period and the other in the fourth. The only other Tiger score came on a quarterback sneak by Stuart Shelton which climaxed a drive of 70 yards with 6 first downs. The pass for the extra two points was deflected, and the game ended with the score 21-9.

Special note should be made of the fine defensive play of Otis Bradley, Ken Pritchett, George Perkins, and Tim Butler. Also to be included are Lewis Everette, Tris Hyde, and Fred Mitchell.

Tigers Downed by Western Maryland Before Dad's Day Crowd, 8-0

OCTOBER 14—The Green Terrors of Western Maryland slogged to an 8-0 victory over the Hampden-Sydney Tigers at rain-soaked Death Valley to hand the Tigers their third defeat in four starts and avenge a 32-12 drubbing at the hands of the Tigers last year.

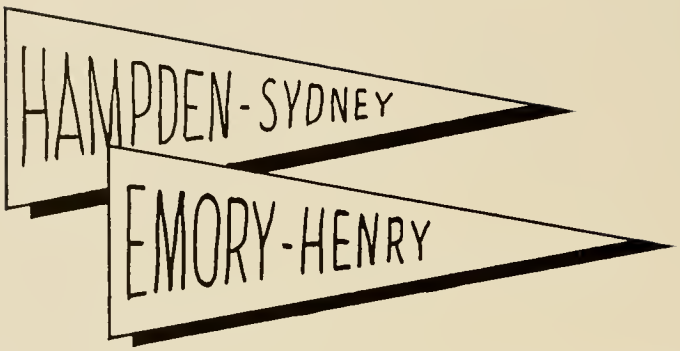

The only score of the game came midway in the last period when the Western Maryland fullback Hobart knifed through center from the 19 yard line. He also added the two-point conversion.

The Tigers spent most of the game with their backs to the wall and only twice did they pose any serious threats, both of which came in the second half. However, neither Tiger drive penetrated past the Western Maryland 30-yard line. The game was marred by 10 penalties, five against each team. Also, each team had its share of fumbles on the slippery field.

As far as statistics were concerned, Hampden-Sydney was ahead in only one column, passing. The Tigers chalked up 27 yards passing to none for Western Maryland. The Terrors gained 185 yards on the ground to 67 yards for the Tigers. In the penalty column, the Tigers were penalized 67 yards to 45 yards for the Terrors.

The Bengals played a good game, considering that the Green Terrors were favored by 14 points. Top performers of the day for the Tigers were Lewis Everette, Otis Bradley, and Fred Mitchell.

During the half-time, Dr. James A. Shield, president of the Parents and Friends Association, crowned Miss Sandra Baker Queen of Dad's Day.

Tigers Fall to a Superior Emory and Henry, 16-0

OCTOBER 21—Having a record for the season at one win against three losses, the Bengals of Hampden-Sydney traveled to Emory & Henry looking for their second win, but the hard-hitting Wasps were a little too much for them.

During the course of the game, the Wasps chalked up 16 points. They scored on two touchdowns and a field goal. One of the extra points, however, was blocked.

The Tigers made only 34 yards on the ground against the powerful Wasps, but were able to press the attack by going to the air. Overall, 94 yards were gained by passing. Of these 94 yards gained through the air, Bobby Saylor and Kent Carter were responsible for over half with 32 yards and 30 yards, respectively. Stuart Shelton threw for 61 of these 94 yards, while freshman George Reynolds accounted for the other 33 yards.

Fortunately, only one fumble was lost by the Tigers, but there was a total of 55 yards of penalties inflicted upon the Tigers.

Lewis Everette showed his usual fine form in punting by having an average of 36.6 yards per punt. He punted 9 times for 329 yards. George Heilig punted only once, and that was good for 38 yards.

Tiger standouts in the game were Mitchell, Everette, and Tredway. Bobby Saylor and Kent Carter did exceptionally well at end, and Shelton and Reynolds handled the quarterback positions very well. Offensively, Ken Pritchett and George Perkins did excellent jobs.

OCTOBER 28—The Blue Jays of Johns Hopkins put a damper on the Tiger Homecoming celebration as a crowd of 4,000 watched them roll to an 18-8 victory over the home team.

The first period of the game ended in a deadlock with neither team able to score. Each team tried to mount a scoring drive but was unable to do so. The longest drive of the period was made by the Tigers, who started at their own 3 and drove to the Blue Jay 44, where they lost the ball on downs.

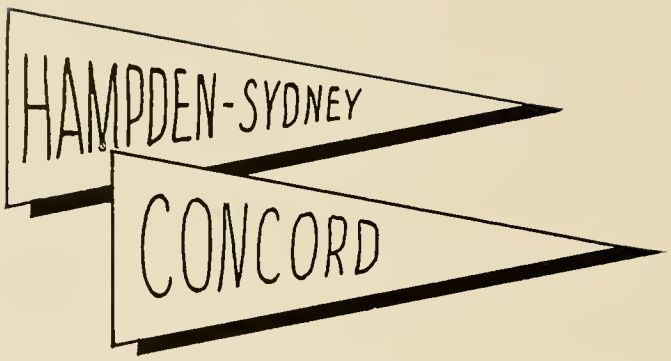

Early in the second quarter, the Blue Jays drove from their 20 to tally the only score of the first half. The extra point attempt was blocked by the heads-up playing of Steve Helvin and Bobby Saylor. Twice again, the Tigers started drives of their own, but both ended in interceptions of Stuart Shelton's passing. The half ended with the Tigers behind by a score of 6-0.

Midway during the third period, the Tigers began another drive from their 48, but once again their effort was ended by an intercepted pass. The Jays took over and raised the score with a pass and a 30-yard TD run. Again the extra point attempt was blocked. The Tigers retaliated with a drive from their 43 to the Hopkins 32 but lost the ball on downs.

The Blue Jays made their final score in the fourth quarter by way of another pass-run combination. Once more the extra point attempt was blocked. The Tigers' only score was set up when Sid Druen recovered a Blue Jay fumble on the Hopkins 22. A pass from George Reynolds to George Heilig put the Tigers on the Blue Jay 13 and from there Reynolds passed to Dickie Cralle for the score. Another pass to Ronnie Jones made the final score 18-8.

Johns Hopkins Overcomes Hampden-Sydney, 18-8 To Spoil Homecoming Celebrations

Tigers Overpowered by Concord, 34-7

NOVEMBER 4—The Bengals of Hampden-Sydney traveled to Athens, West Virginia to meet, for the first time, the Mountain Lions of Concord College. The Mountain Lions turned out to be a powerful foe as they intercepted five passes and rolled up 223 yards rushing to defeat the visiting Tigers by 34-7.

The initial quarter was completely dominated by the Tigers. The Tigers took the ball on their 22 and drove to the Concord 4. With fourth down and less than a yard to go the Tigers failed to make a first down. The Lions took over, but the defensive unit of the Tigers kept them within their own 20 each time they had the ball during the first period.

During the second period the situation was completely reversed. The Lions broke into the scoring column with two touchdowns. The first score came on a 48-yard drive. The second came soon after when Concord intercepted a Hampden-Sydney pass and moved to the Tiger 2, where fullback Wayne Hicks drove over for the score. Both extra points were good, and the half ended with the score 14-0.

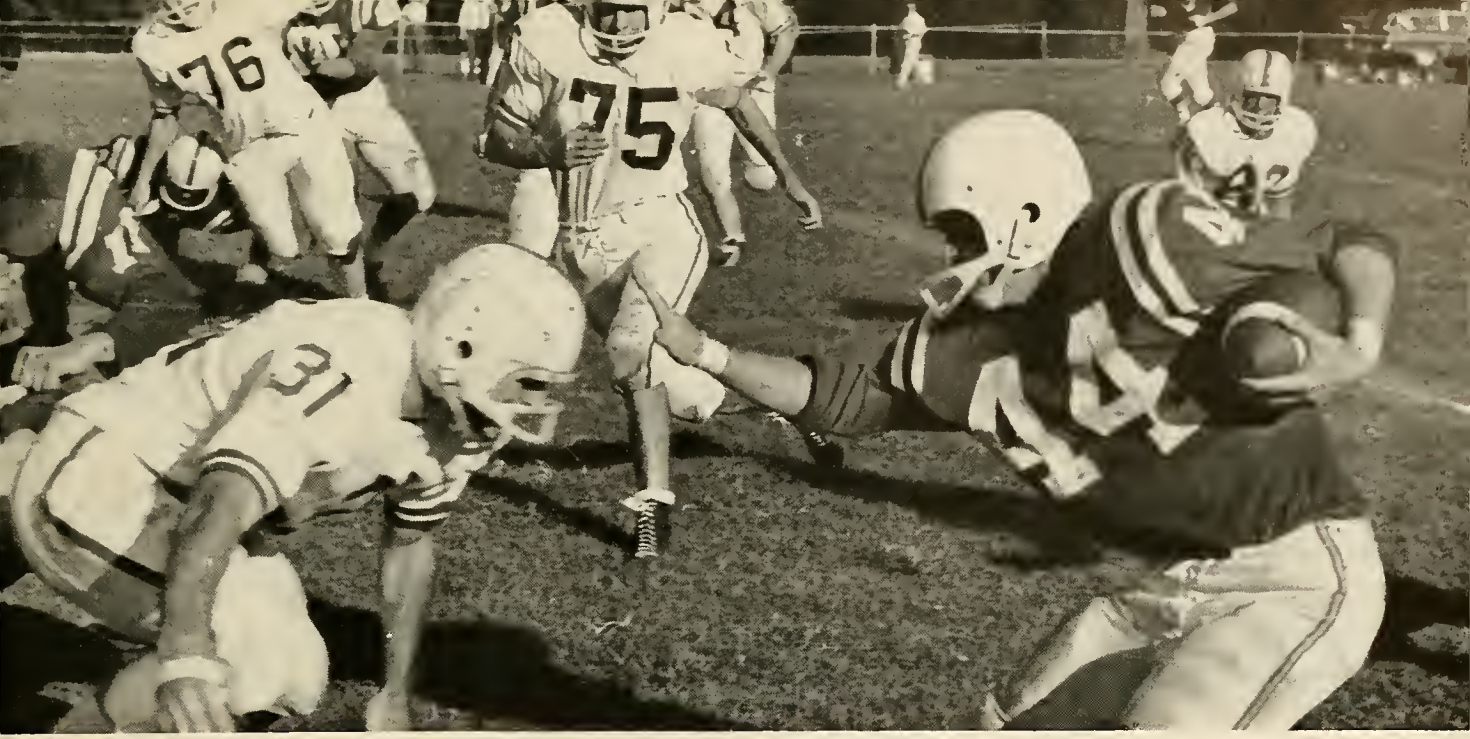

The third quarter went scoreless with a Tiger drive being stopped on the Concord 3. The Tigers came back in the fourth quarter on another drive originating from their 47 and advanced to the Concord 25. From there the Tigers got their only score of the game on a pass from George Reynolds to Lewis Everette. Fred Mitchell added the extra point to make the score 14-7. The bottom fell out with two Concord interceptions of Tiger passes resulting in two additional touchdowns. The game ended with Hampden-Sydney in possession, the final score being Concord 34, H-S C 7.

NOVEMBER 11—The Tigers broke their five-game losing streak by downing the Colonels from Centre College 37-8 at Death Valley.

The first half of the game was well played by the Tigers, but they had trouble in holding on to the ball. Four fumbles were lost, climaxing four Tiger drives. The first score came in the second period on a pass from George Reynolds to Bobby Saylor. The extra point try was no good, and the Tigers led 6-0.

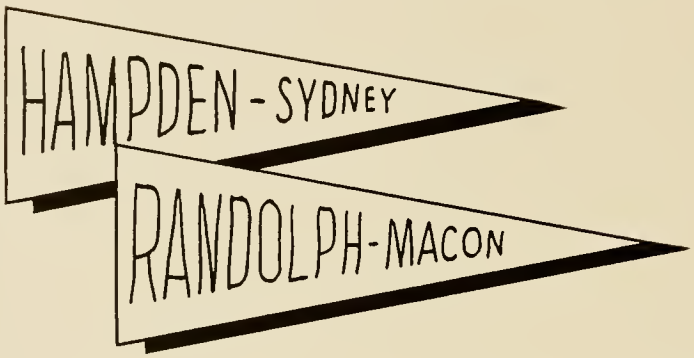

In the third period the Colonels took the kick-off on their 25, but two successive penalties put them on their 15. On the following play, an attempted pitch-out was intercepted by Dick Cralle who raced 20 yards for the second Tiger score. This time the extra point try by Mitchell was successful.

The ball changed hands several times and then the Tigers took the ball from their 37 and advanced to the Centre 2, where Lewis Everette intercepted a Centre pass on the 18. From that point, Lewis Everette tallied his second score of the day, and two extra points were added on a pass from Tredway to Dennis Dills.

The Centre team got their only score on the longest drive of the game. Marching all the way from their 23 they scored on a pass from Harringan to Hammond. Then Harringan added two points with an end run. The Tigers' last score came minutes later when Fred Mitchell heaved a tremendous 50-yard pass to end Kent Carter for the score. The two-point conversion was added with an end run by Jim Pickens.

Tigers Defeat Jackets in Shrine Bowl, 13-6

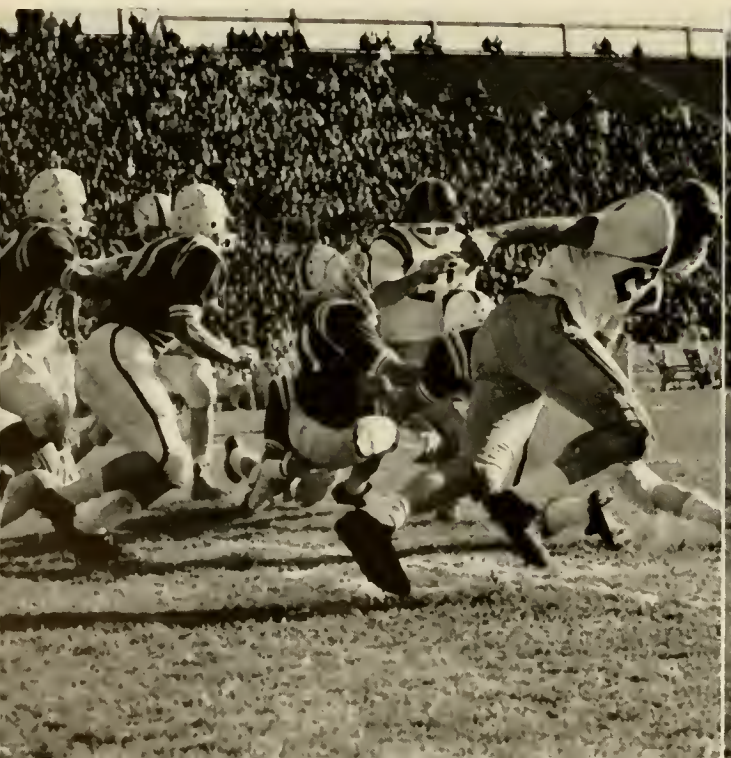

NOVEMBER 18—The Hampden-Sydney Tigers concluded their 1961 season by defeating the rival Yellow Jackets of Randolph-Macon College by a score of 13-6 before a tremendous crowd attending the Acca Temple Shrine Bowl Game.

This particular game has long been the most popular game of the football season. The first year these arch rivals met in the Acca Temple Shrine Bowl, the result was a 0-0 deadlock that was fought in an all-afternoon downpour. That year, a Randolph-Macon player was awarded a trophy for being the most valuable player of the game. The second year the contest was played, Randolph-Macon won the game by three points and for the second time had the most valuable player trophy awarded to a member of her team. This year, at the third Acca Temple Shrine Bowl, the tide was turned and Hampden-Sydney won both honors. The hard-fought contest ended in a 13-6 victory for the Tigers, and the Most Valuable Player Award went to Fred Mitchell, who played an excellent ball game.

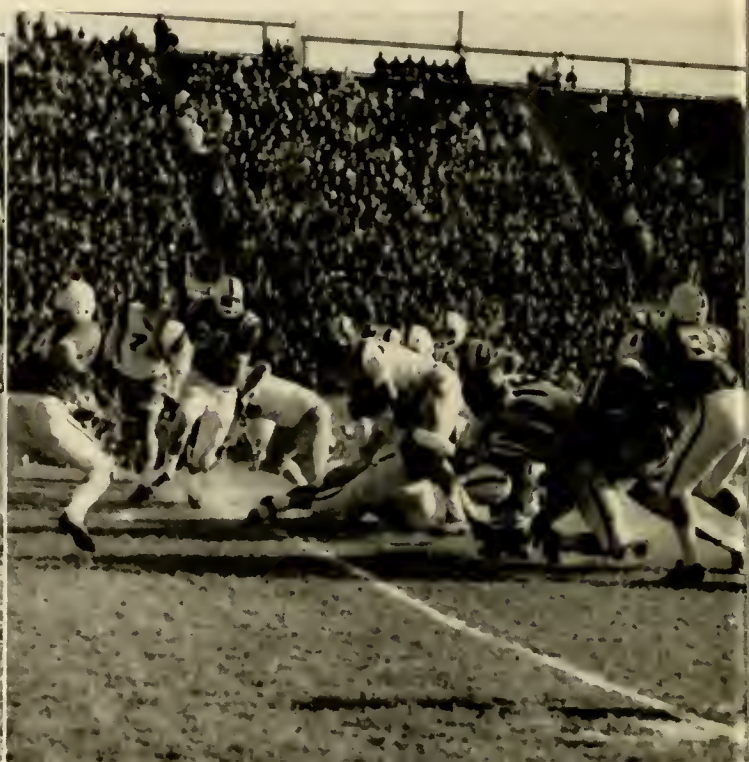

From the time the game started, it was obvious that the Tigers were determined to get revenge for the loss of last year's game. The entire first half was dominated by the Tigers, who scored once in the first period. The Yellow Jackets pressed the attack late in the half, and they too came up with a score. However, the crisis passed when, during the second half, Bobby Saylor gathered in a long pass from Fred Mitchell to put the Tigers ahead by 13-6.

Tiger standouts were Fred Mitchell, Bobby Saylor, and Lewis Everette. Saylor did very well at his end position by pulling in 2 passes for a total of 67 yards. Everette pulled in two passes for 18 yards, carried for 28 yards, and had a 36.2 yard punt average.

Yellow Jacket stopped for no gain by Tiger forward wall.

The Hampden-Sydney Tigers opened their 1961-62 Basketball season with a 79-95 loss to Norfolk Division of William and Mary at Death Valley. High scorer in the game was Bill Hardin, who poured in 27 points. Norwood Davis was second with 18 points.

The first away game of the Tigers was played at Bridgewater, where Bill Hardin led the Bengals to a 93-58 victory by tossing in a total of 21 points. Butch Cox took second place honors in the scoring column with a total of 19 points.

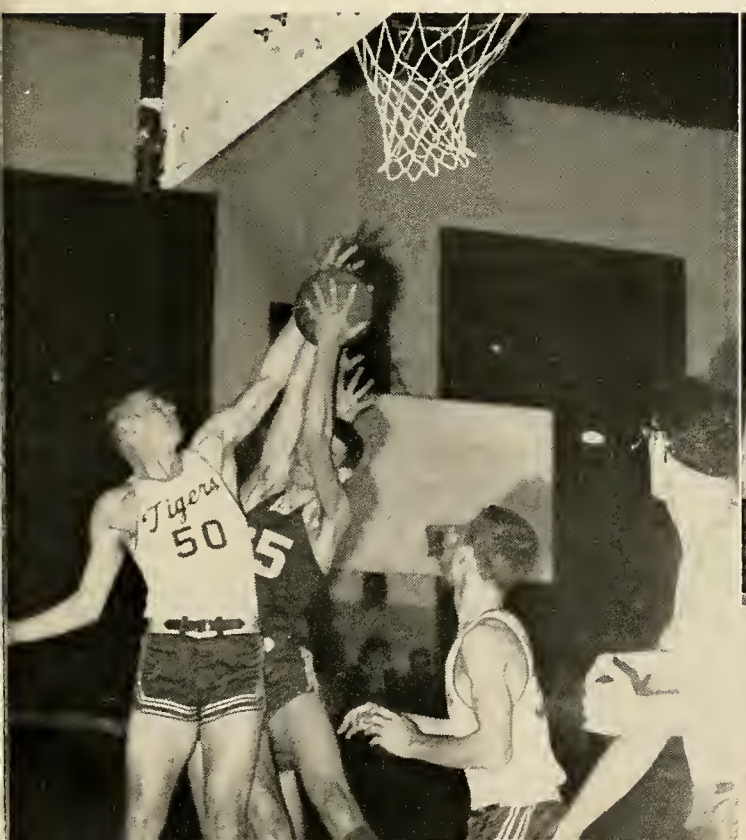

On December 9th, the Hampden-Sydney basketball team traveled to Mt. St. Mary's, where they went down to defeat by a score of 64-86. Butch Cox, Dave Trickler and Bill Hardin played exceptionally well, but a strong Mt. St. Mary's team prevailed.

The Tigers evened their season record at 2-2 with a 105-73 win over Lynchburg at Gammon Gymnasium, just three days after their loss to Mt. St. Mary's. Star shooter Bill Hardin handed in his usual fine performance with 21 points. He was followed by Butch Cox with 18 points.

During Christmas vacation, the Tiger team attended the Fort Lee Tournament and met Elon, Fort Lee, and Randolph-Macon. The game with Elon was dropped by a score of 70-81, but Coach Pegram's boys retaliated by downing Randolph-Macon by a score of 75-70. In both of these games, Bill Hardin paced the team in scoring with 29 points against Elon and 30 points against Randolph-Macon. Congratulations go to Hardin for setting five tournament records at Fort Lee and for holding the position of top scorer in the state.

On the weekend of January 5th and 6th, the Tigers traveled to Norfolk Division of William and Mary and R. P. I. Norfolk Division met with an 84-82 defeat, and R. P. I. was turned back by a score of 78-65. Bill Hardin continued his high scoring with 28 points against Norfolk and 25 at R. P. I.

On the 9th of January, Hampden-Sydney played host to the "Gentlemen" from Washington and Lee and handed them a 77-66 defeat at the hands of Bill Hardin and Butch Cox, who accounted for 47 points.

The Tigers, riding high on a wave of victory, extended their winning streak to 6 games by walking over the Medical College of Virginia, 111-62 and by soundly trouncing Roanoke by a score of 97-69. The tables were then turned when the Tigers visited Roanoke College and met with a 74-86 defeat.

Arch-rival Randolph-Macon visited Hampden-Sydney on the third of February and went down to defeat for the second time against a powerful Tiger team. Bill Hardin and Dave Trickler accounted for 49 points of the 80-71 victory.. and Davis poured in 70 points. Bill Hardin continued to lead the state in scoring, as his average climbed to 26.6. With this average, he stood as the 19th highest scorer in the nation.

At Lynchburg College, the Tigers went down to an 86-91 defeat. After the first nine minutes of play, the Tigers were ahead 24-4, but many fouls called on the Tigers gave the Hornets hope, and they came away victorious. Nevertheless, Bill Hardin turned in his usual superb performance with 27 points, while Captain Norwood Davis was second with 20.

Once again in Gammon Gymnasium, the Tigers defeated Baltimore University by 83-70. Here also, Hardin and Davis were high scorers with 23 points and 20 points, respectively.

On the tenth of February, Hampden-Sydney visited the "Gentlemen" at Lexington and defeated them a second time by a score of 70-61. For the third straight game, Hardin and Davis were high scorers for the Tigers. Hardin chalked up 26 points, and Davis was close behind with 25 points.

The third and final encounter with the Yellow Jackets took place on the home court of a fired-up Randolph-Macon team. The first half was evenly matched, but during the second half the jackets pulled steadily ahead to a 64-80 victory. Hampden-Sydney's high scorer, Bill Hardin, managed to tally 25 points, even though he was heavily guarded.

The last two games of the season were played at home before partisan crowds. The Tigers prevailed in both cases with a 92-73 win over Johns Hopkins, and a 95-53 win over RPI. In the Johns Hopkins game, Bill Hardin chalked up 35 points, the most he has gotten in any game this year. He also was high scorer in the RPI game with 33 points. With the conclusion of the season, Bill remained the highest scorer of the state.

The 1961-62 season marked the third year Hampden-Sydney has had a wrestling team. Unfortunately, the response to Coach Fulton's call for grapplers was not what it should have been, and there were barely enough men to fill the required nine divisions.

Due to this lack of participation, the Tigers dropped all of their matches. The only bright spot came when Otis Bradley took first place in his division in the post-season tournament and was also named the Most Valuable Wrestler of the tournament.

The 1961 golf team of Hampden-Sydney played a total of nine matches and came out with an over-all record of four wins against five losses, under the coaching of Mr. MacDonald. The Tigers took part in the Mason-Dixon Championship matches and captured fourth place.

The Tigers posted wins against V.M.I., Bridgewater, and defeated R.P.I. twice. The losses were given up to Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the University of Richmond, Washington and Lee, Randolph-Macon, and Lynchburg College.

The Hampden-Sydney Tigers completed their 1961 season with an over-all record of 9 wins, 13 losses, and 1 tie. The League record was 6 wins to 4 losses, and the Little Eight record was 7 wins against 3 losses.

The first three games of the season were played on a road trip to Elon, Davidson, and Belmont Abbey. On this trip the Tigers lost by 7 to 6 to Elon, and by 9 to 4 to Belmont Abbey. The game with Davidson was played to an 8 to 8 tie.

Then the Tigers played host to Rhode Island, Farleigh-Dickinson, and twice to Elon. Of the four, the Tigers won only one, that being the Farleigh-Dickinson game by a score of 10 to 3. Hampden-Sydney dropped the Rhode Island game by 8 to 2 and both Elon games by 6 to 3 and 7 to 4.

Again on a road trip, the Tigers split a pair of games between American University and Baltimore University. The Tigers won the American University game by 12 to 10 and dropped the Baltimore game 7 to 6.

Then, at home for the second time, the Tigers beat Lynchburg by 13 to 9.

The Tigers visited Catholic University and R.P.I., and, for the second time on the road trip, they split a pair of games. They lost to Catholic University by 7 to 6 and soundly trounced R.P.I. by 17 to 3.

Hampden-Sydney was visited by Norfolk Division of William and Mary and Randolph-Macon. The Tigers lost to the Norfolk Division by 9 to 2 and beat Randolph-Macon 4 to 2.

The next three games were dropped by the Tigers to Bridgewater, Randolph-Macon, and Washington and Lee, respectively.

The Tigers placed another mark in the win column by posting a win over Bridgewater the second time they played. This was followed by another win over Lynchburg at 11 to 1. Another game was dropped to Washington and Lee, this time by 4 to 2. The Tigers last win came over R.P.I. by 3 to 2.

Hampden-Sydney met Randolph-Macon in the Division play-off but went down to defeat by 8 to 6.

The final game was lost 5 to 4 to Norfolk Division of William and Mary.

'61 track

COACH BILLY FRANKLIN

The 1961 track season was, to say the least, not one of the best seasons that the track team has seen in the past few years. Out of six scheduled meets, the Tiger track team posted six losses against no wins.

The season began on March 28th with the Tigers marched against a strong Randolph-Macon team on their own field. The final score was 67 for Randolph-Macon and 55 for Hampden-Sydney.

The second outing for the team came in an uneven struggle against Roanoke College, the score being 84 to 33.

On April 15th, the Hampden-Sydney Tigers met another strong team at Bridgewater College. The Eagles overcame the Tigers before a partisan crowd by a score of 76 to 46.

The Tigers turned in their finest performance of the season against Lynchburg College at Death Valley, but lost the contest by 62 to 60.

The last two meets turned out to be the worst ones of the entire season for the Tigers. On April 20th Washington and Lee trounced Hampden-Sydney by 111 to 29. Then, the Tigers fell to Norfolk Division of William and Mary by 108 to 14.

The Tigers who won their first letter in track were Buddy Koch, John Parrott, Buck Overby, Chip Smith, Fred Hudgins and Bobby Waters.

KNOX HILLMAN

Each year, the seven social fraternities on campus and the Independent Organization vie in rugged competition in seven sports for the coveted Intramural Cup, which is presented at the end of the year to that organization which accumulates the most points.

The sports are divided into the major and minor sports. The major sports are touch football, A group basketball, and softball. The minor sports are ping pong, tennis, volleyball, horseshoes, and B group basketball.

Last year the Kappa Sigma fraternity accumulated the most points throughout the year and were awarded the Intramural Cup.

This year, the Intramural manager is Knox Hillman, who has been doing an excellent job. He is responsible for scheduling all events and for tabulating all acquired points.

The 1961 touch football season ended with the Kappa Sigmas in undisputed first place and a three-way tie for second place between Kappa Alpha, Sigma Chi, and the Independents. The basketball season ended with the Pi Kappa Alphas in first place.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the many contributors who have been indispensable in compiling this sixty-sixth issue of the KALEIDOSCOPE. Without their help the yearbook could never have come into being.

To the Staff members we owe words of special thanks. Their cooperation and willingness to help have been greatly appreciated.

Also gratitude must be expressed to the following: Mr. William Blackwell and Mr. Joseph Murphy of Lynchburg Engraving Company; Mr. Austin Taylor and Mr. F. M. Walters of Stone Printing Company; Mr. Gerald Lisman, the portrait photographer; and the Farmville Herald. All of these have been most helpful in working with us to produce this yearbook.

Perhaps a special note explaining the design on the divider pages would be appropriate. We refer you to the word "Kaleidoscope". Webster defines a kaleidoscope as a small tube containing loose bits of colored glass reflected by mirrors so that various symmetrical parterns appear as the instrument is rotated. The designs on the divider pages, with the use of an artistic imagination, represent a Kaleidoscope.

In closing, we hope that you have enjoyed this issue of the KALEIDOSCOPE and that you will consider it a success.
